PERSONAL SUMMARY

I am a young, highly engaged social media user and I would love the opportunity to provide creativity, passion, and a psychological edge to your social media marketing role. I have a Bachelor of Arts in Classics and French from Victoria University and during my studies I enhanced my written skills and understanding of people. I also developed my ability of proposing unconventional and exciting solutions to marketing problems in my part-time job and my role in the student club. I enjoy working in a team and am looking forward to more opportunities to demonstrate my positive attitude and creative flair.
